

Pride by rail

Pride Month in Europe is more like Pride Season, featuring parades, festivals and other events from May to September. With a Eurail/Interrail Pass, you can ride the train from event to event, for one week or all summer long.

Go One Stop Further

Use our map to find a pride event near you or your travels. Or take your pride on tour, following one of our itineraries for each month of the season.

Go one stop further, past the big cities and parades, and connect with colourful communities at local pride markets and festivals.

Remember!

Pride events are made by and for local LGBTQ+ communities, to celebrate diversity and fight for rights. So, if you join them, please be open-minded, respectful and kind. Have fun and put your pride on the map!

Take your pride on tour

June Warm-up fast

Join the parade in Torremolinos, Spain on 1 June and the beach party on the 2nd! Explore Cordoba, Granada or Sevilla, before travelling high-speed through Madrid and Barcelona to Sitges, Spain, host of "Europe's pride by the sea".

The 9 June beachfront parade will have you feeling HAWT! Cool off with a Med stop in Catalonia or SW France as you go to join the locals at Fierté Montpellier, France, on 15 June.

Take a week off for R&R along the French & Italian Riviera, on a quiet beach near Toulon, Hyères or Ventimiglia. Or visit Marseille, France, for community events at the start of their PRIDE2WEEKS (from 21 June). Then travel via Genova to Milan by 29 June for the biggest pride in Italy! Got travel days left? Go one stop further to Lake Maggiore or Lake Como.

July The middle of summer in Central Europe

Luxembourg is small but holds a mighty Pride Week in Esch-sur-Alzette. Arrive from 6 July for a commemoration ceremony and diva storytelling. Then, party at the Street Fest on 13-14 July. Stop off in the Rhine Valley en route to ColognePride, Germany, which concludes with a CSD-Street party on 19-21 July.

Prefer something other than a party? Skip Cologne and go to Berlin's Stadtfest (20-21 July), a street market for local LGBTQ+ vendors – it's a great way to meet queer Berliners. Stay till 27 July for the Christopher Street Day finale of Berlin's Pride Month, or go one stop further to Leipzig or Bamberg.

Go south to Bavaria for CSD Nürnberg Pride, Germany, with a finale on 3-4 August. Or arrive from 18 July for Pride Weeks: rainbow picnics, drag brunch and more. See more of Bavaria or Czech Republic on your way to Prague's Pride Festival (5-11 August), a relatively new pride. Support local sellers and charities at the Pride Village market on Střelecký Island. Then, finish strong at Letná's Pride Park music festival on 10 August.

August Cool-down at waterside prides

Start in Stockholm, Sweden for three events around its many islands: Pride House community centre, Pride Parade (3 August) and Pride Park music festival. Stop off in Lund, Malmö or Hannover, on your way to CSD Frankfurt, Germany (8-11 August), a four-night street party, and a 10 August demonstration, starting and ending by the River Main.

After stops in Strasbourg, France, or Basel, Switzerland, arrive in lakeside Lucerne by 31 August for Pride Zentralschweiz. The three-year-old event unites central Switzerland with stalls, parading and after-partying beneath the mountains. Then head into these mountains, stopping in Zug, Zurich, Innsbruck, or even Liechtenstein, as you ride to your Pride Season finale in Salzburg, Austria. Its second-ever pride promises a week of cultural events, concluding with a CSD March on 7 September.
